HIPAA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Anesco Interventional Pain Institute is required by law, to maintain the privacy and confidentiality of your protected health information and to provide our patients with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your protected health information.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR HEALTH CARE INFORMATION

Treatment

We may disclose your health care information to other health care professionals, coaches, immediate family members to include spouse, parents, adult, children, guardians, and insurance companies for the purpose of treatment, payment, or health care operations.

Example:

"On occasion, it may be necessary to seek consultation regarding your condition from other health care providers associated with Anesco Interventional Pain Institute"

"It is our policy to provide a substitute health care provider, authorized by Anesco Interventional Pain Institute to provide assessment and/or treatment to our patients, without advanced notice, in the event of your primary health care provider's absence due to vacation, sickness, and other emergency situations."

Payment

We may disclose your health information to your insurance provider for the purpose of payment or health care operations.

Example:

"As a courtesy to our patients, we will submit an itemized billing statement to your insurance carrier for the purpose of payment to Anesco Interventional Pain Institute for health care services rendered. If you pay for your health care services personally, we will, as a courtesy, provide an itemized billing to your insurance carrier for the purpose of reimbursement to you. The billing statement contains medical information, including diagnosis, date of injury or condition, and codes which describe the health care services received."

Workers' Compensation

We may disclose your health information as necessary to comply with State Workers' Compensation Laws.

Emergencies

We may disclose your health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, or another person responsible for your care about your medical condition or in the event of an emergency or of your death.

Public Health

As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health authorities, for purposes related to: preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability, reporting child abuse or neglect, reporting domestic violence, reporting to the Food and Drug Administration problems with products and reactions to medications, and reporting disease or infection exposure.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings

We may disclose your health information in the course of any administrative or judicial proceeding.

Law Enforcement

We may disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for purposes such as identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or in missing person, complying with a court order or subpoena, and other law enforcement purposes.

Deceased Persons

We may disclose your health information to coroners or medical examiners.

Research

We may disclose your health information to researchers conducting research that has been approved by an Institutional Review Board.

Public Safety

It may be necessary to disclose your health information to appropriate persons in order to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a particular person or to the general public.

Specialized Government Agencies

We may disclose your health information for military, national security, prisoner, and government benefits purposes.

Marketing

We may contact you for marketing purposes, or fund raising purposes as described below.

Example:

“As a courtesy to our patients, it is our policy to call your home on the evening prior to your scheduled appointment to remind you of your appointment time. If you are not at home, we leave a reminder message on your answering machine or with the person answering the phone. No personal health information will be disclosed during this recording or message other than the date and time of your scheduled appointment along with a request to call our office if you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment.”

“It is our practice to participate in charitable events to raise awareness, food donations, gifts, money, etc. During these times, we may send you a letter, postcard, invitation, or call your home, to invite you to participate in the charitable activity. It is not our policy to disclose any personal health information about your condition for the purpose of Anesco Interventional Pain Institute sponsored fund raising events.”

Change of Ownership

In the event that Anesco Interventional Pain Institute is sold or merged with another organization, your health information/records will become the property of the new owner.

Your Health Information Rights:

- You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures on your health information. Please be advised, however, that Anesco Interventional Pain Institute is not required to agree to the restriction that you requested.
- You have the right to have your health information received or communicated through an alternative method or sent to an alternative location other than the usual method of communication of delivery, upon your request.
- You have the right to inspect and copy your health information.
- You have the right to request that Anesco Interventional Pain Institute amend your protected health information. Please be advised, however, that Anesco Interventional Pain Institute is not required to amend your protected health information. If your request to amend your protected health information had been denied, you will be provided with an explanation of our denial reason(s) and information about how you can disagree with the denial.
- You have a right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information made by Anesco Interventional Pain Institute.
- You have a right to a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time upon request.

Changes to this Notice of Privacy Practices

Anesco Interventional Pain Institute reserves the right to amend this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time in the future, and make the new provisions effective for all information that it maintains. Until such amendment is made, Anesco Interventional Pain Institute is required by law to comply with this Notice.
